

AGENDA/PROGRAM – ICPRA Conference COPENHAGEN 2010

Tuesday 25 May 2010

Arrival of participants.

1800	Welcome function – arranged by the Police Union in Denmark. Meeting point – at the reception desk at 1745.
-------------	---

Wednesday 26 May 2010 – First Business Day

1000	Official opening of the Conference – President Peter Ibsen, Police Union in Denmark.
1015	Lars Barfoed, Ministry of Justice, opens the Conference.
1045	ICPRA Chair Greg O’Connor, President of New Zealand Police Association
	Call to order.
	Minute of Silence.
	Accept and approve minutes of 2008 meeting.
	Introductions
	Introduce ICPRA Business Agenda
1200 - 1315	LUNCH
1315	Session 1: Developments in international policing from the UNDP perspective. Introductory presentation followed by discussion. Canvas key challenges faced by UNDP in fostering rule of law in post-conflict and other development scenarios; the development of responses to the issues; and the potential contribution of ICPRA, and the national-level professional police representative organisations of which it is comprised. UNDP, Yasmine Sherif.
1430 - 1500	AFTERNOON TEA

1500 - 1630	Session 2: New structures and reforms inside the police all over the world. What are the effects on policing around the world? What can we learn from each other? Scientist PhD Rex Degnegaard.
1630 - 1730	Session 3: The worldwide Global Recession. The effects of the Global Recession in an international perspective. How different countries have tried to solve the national problems for instance by wage cuts in the public sector. Henrik Henriksen, Chief of Investments concerning strategy and external business, PFA Pension.
CONFERENCE ADJOURNS FOR THE DAY
EVENING ON YOUR OWN

Thursday 27 May 2010 – Second Business Day

0845 - 0945	Session 4: Organized crime from a Danish point of view. Development and the actual situation amongst organized gangs in Denmark. The conflict and criminality from an international perspective. Assistant Commissioner Kim Kliver, National Investigations, Denmark.
0945	Conduct Business Session ICPRA constitution Membership Financial Accountability General Secretary – appointment/election ICPRA Incorporation Process Requirements ICPRA Objectives and Priorities Planning Advancing ICPRA ICPRA Communications Plan

	Discussion and Input Finalize if possible Confirm New Members Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association (FLEOA) Appointment of Officers As required Appointment of ICPRA host 2012
1000 - 1030	MORNING TEA
1030 - 1230	Conduct Business Session - continues
1230 - 1330	LUNCH
1330	Session 5: Police wages compared to other groups, i.e. Nurses. Following discussions in the Executive Committee, several countries want to compare police wages to other groups in society, for example nurse wages. In order to have a general status in these discussions, each country is asked to give a picture about “comparisons of police wages to other groups in society” in their respective countries. Klaus Matthiesen, Chief of Negotiations, FTF.
1445	PHOTOS
1500	AFTERNOON TEA
1530	Session 6: Violence and threats against police officers. The global financial crisis is amplifying social unrest and unemployment which results in an increase in violent behavior and cases concerning violence against police officers. Arranged by EuroCOP. Speakers from EuroCOP.
1645	CONFERENCE CONCLUDES
1900 - 2300	CONFERENCE DINNER The Harbour Restaurant