Events and Activities

Several exciting activities have been arranged for delegates and their guests during their stay in Baltimore.

Hospitality Rooms

Raise a glass with your colleagues in our hospitality rooms. Hospitality will be provided every evening beginning Monday, March 19th through Friday, March 23rd for delegates of the ICPR Conference and those staying for the NFOP State Presidents and National Board meetings.

Partner's Activity Day

Spouses and companions of delegates are invited to explore Baltimore with a guided tour of the city.

Conference Dinner

Delegates and guests are invited to enjoy the final evening of the ICPR Conference with a dinner at the famous Top of the World. Located on the 27th floor of the World Trade Center, the world's tallest pentagonal building is home to the only Baltimore attraction to offer an awe-inspiring view of Maryland's skyline, harbor, and beyond.

Top of the World has expansive windows that frame the Inner Harbor, the surrounding city and beyond to the Chesapeake Bay. Discover Baltimore's history as guides reveal fascinating facts and personal reminiscences that make Baltimore come alive!

Please be advised that visitors are subject to a manual search of purses, briefcases, packages and back packs. For your convenience, it is recommended that you leave non-essential items at home.

Discover Baltimore's Inner Harbor

Ideally located in downtown Baltimore, the Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel is within steps of Baltimore's famed inner harbor and an array of popular attractions. Discover all this great city has to offer while enjoying the comforts of the Baltimore Harbor hotel.

Baltimore's Inner Harbor is one of the most photographed and visited areas of the city. It has been one of the major seaports in the United States since the 1700s and started blossoming into the cultural center of Baltimore in the 1970s.

Distinct in function and form, locals and visitors alike enjoy Baltimore's Inner Harbor and the surrounding neighborhoods that offer a variety of fine dining, cultural experiences, and exciting nightlife.

From breath-taking panoramic views of the skyline from the Observation Level of the World Trade Center to the up-close and personal experiences of street performances happening spontaneously at the waterfront, Baltimore's Inner Harbor offers more to see and do than you might imagine.

Harborplace and the Gallery

Located in the heart of the Inner Harbor on Pratt Street, Harborplace and The Gallery offer unique shopping, diverse dining, and a variety of entertainment right on the picturesque waterfront.

Power Plant Live!

A block away from Baltimore's Inner Harbor is Power Plant Live, a premier dining and entertainment district that features a variety of restaurants and nightclubs surrounding a common plaza. There is also outdoor seating which often features live performances.

Baltimore Water Taxi

For the perfect transportation in and around Baltimore's Inner Harbor, the water taxi is an affordable solution. Located on Lancaster Street, one price buys unlimited rides for the day.

Spirit Cruises - Baltimore

The newly renovated Spirit of Baltimore offers year round Lunch and Dinner cruises as well as Specialty and Holiday Cruises. The Spirit has 2 fully enclosed climate-controlled decks along with an open air panoramic deck that boasts the best views of the historic Harbor. The Inner Harbor Spirit offers interactive, narrated 60 minute sightseeing tours of Baltimore from April-October giving you an insider's view of our famous Inner Harbor.

National Aquarium

The National Aquarium in Baltimore houses sharks, dolphins, rays and tropical fish among the more than 16,000 creatures in naturalistic exhibits, including a walk-through rain forest, an exciting live-action dolphin show and a new Australian exhibit.

World Trade Center

Seeming to hover 405 feet directly over top of the harbor, the World Trade Center in Baltimore offers the best view of the city in every direction from the "Top of the World" Observation Level on the 27th floor. Constructed in 1977, its 32 floors make up the world's tallest equilateral 5-sided building.

Baltimore Maritime Museum

Located at Pier 3 and Pier 5, be sure to see the treasures of Inner Harbor by touring the USS Torsk, the USCGC Taney, the Lightship Chesapeake and more. Visit the Maritime Museum and you'll receive a discount for the USS Constellation, the only Civil War ship still floating today.

Inner Harbor Restaurants

Elegant gourmet cuisine, ethnic foods from around the world and plenty of fresh seafood from Maryland's Chesapeake Bay abound. Come sample a taste of Baltimore at one of the many Inner Harbor restaurants.

Baltimore Orioles Hall of Fame

A visit to Camden Yards is just minutes away and, if you're a true baseball fan, be sure to see the Baltimore Orioles Hall of Fame exhibit and the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum located nearby. You can also visit the Sports Legends Museum which offers 22,000 square feet of artifacts and interactive exhibits, transforming Camden Station into one of the most spectacular sports museums in America.
